Laws of New Zealand

Civil Procedure: High Court Reissue 2

The second reissue of the title "Civil Procedure: High Court" in The Laws of New Zealand has now been reissued in full and is available online.

Written by Chris Corry, the title offers comprehensive and authoritative coverage of the rules of court in proceedings issued in the High Court. The title offers clear and step-by-step guidance through the procedural machinery that is currently in place under the High Court Rules 2016 and other related legislation for civil actions in the High Court, from jurisdictional matters and initial steps for the commencement of proceedings, to interlocutory proceedings, case management, disposal of proceedings without trials, trial, through to judgments, accounts and enquiries, costs, enforcement proceedings, and appeals. The title is also offering a valuable overview of proceedings in the High Court with special features, such as judicial review proceedings, commercial proceedings assignable to judges on the commercial panel of the Court, admiralty proceedings, and trans-Tasman proceedings under the Commerce Act 1986, as well as providing essential guidance on interim and other relief.
