

EMPLOYMENT LAW

BULLETIN

In this issue

Editorial

page 101 Issue 5 Editorial
(Susan Hornsby-Geluk)

Articles

page 102 With the increasing overlap of work and personal spheres, where is the line for when an employee's conduct outside the workplace can justifiably become an employer's concern?
(Johanna Drayton and Macaela Joyes)

page 105 Enforceable restraints of trade — the bar is high (Simon Martin and Sarah Riceman)

page 108 Bringing our whole selves to work — limits on the right to freedom of expression in the workplace (Caroline Rieger and Sorina Casvean-Muresan)

page 112 Workplace romance: the employment issues
(Kathryn Dalziel)

Q and A

page 116 Savage

Case Comments

page 119 Ocean Fisheries Ltd v Maritime New Zealand
[2021] NZHC 2083

page 120 Coetzee v Oamaru Meats Ltd
[2021] NZEmpC 137

Issue 5
November 2021
pp 101-122

dundas street
employment lawyers

General Editor

Susan Hornsby-Geluk
Partner

EDITORIAL BOARD

Gordon Anderson
Bernard Banks
Former Chief Judge Graeme Colgan
Kathryn Dalziel
Geoff Davenport
Alastair Espie
Michael Leggat
Chloe Luscombe
Megan Richards

Practice Area Lead

Aylia Harris